FOURTH QUARTER 1982 ALUMNI NEWS / BRYAN COLLEGE / DAYTON, TENNESSEE

RYTHER ON ALUMNI: "YOU ARE THE PRODUCT"

Mr. Ryther entertained and inspired guests at the Friday Alumni Dinner in Brock Hall with his off-the-cuff speech, "The Seven Ps in the Bryan Pod." Following are highlights from his speech.

It has been said that there are three things for a good speaker to remember, "Stand up, speak up, and shut up." I have a good example for accomplishing things very rapidly. A young lady is here who will remember that we used to have banquets at the Reigledale Tavern in Georgia. We had a delicious dinner, and this young lady was mistress of ceremonies. I remember that she stood up and knocked for attention at the beginning of the program and said, "We will now have the benediction." Mark Senter, sitting next to me, said, "Boy, that was a short banquet."

My father used to say that many a good talk has been ruined the last thirty minutes. I have a watch and it tells time, but the sad part of it is, that it is also a calendar watch. October has just begun, and I didn't come here to make a talk. I came here to enjoy the fellowship with some of my young friends. I have been to a good many antique shows, but I believe this is the first one at which I was the antique!

I want to talk about the "Seven Ps of the Bryan P Pod." The first one is Position. That gets personal with me, because back in the fall of 1929 I was taking a graduate course and wondering what the next year would hold. I started to write letters, and I wrote to 35 to 40 different colleges to offer my services. I heard from half a dozen, but all I know is that they took the other fellow. Finally, a friend of mine who knew Dr. George Guille, the first president of Bryan, said, "Why don't you write to Dr. Guille?" I was ready to write to anybody. And behold, Dr. Guille replied, "We are having a meeting on July 30. Come on up and we will be glad to talk with you."

The next morning after I arrived, I met with Dr. Guille and some of the board, and Dr. Guille looked across the desk at me and said, "Do you believe the Bible?" I am so thankful that he stopped there. If he had said, "Do you know the Gospel?" I don't know what I would have said. I suppose I had heard it somewhere along the line, but I am so glad he didn't ask.

But this is the second P, the Place where I came to serve, for I was invited to be on the first faculty of William Jennings Bryan University, as it was known originally.

Our president, Dr. George E. Guille was a beautiful man, if I ever saw one. He was always neat as a pin. I remember the last night I saw him. We had been out looking for students in Rhea County. When he waved good-bye, he said, "I will see you in the morning." That night he was reading his Bible and when his wife came to the room, she found he had gone to be with the Lord.

Then there were Dr. Spindler, Mr. Bjerregard, Mr. Montoya, and Miss Yancey. They were the People in that first faculty at Bryan.

That first year we had basketball for men and also for women. We had to choose colors because the school had no colors. We decided on scarlet and gold—scarlet for the blood and gold for rewards.

Some of the students wanted a mascot and suggested an ape, but the board of trustees wouldn't stand for that kind of thing—no monkey business for them! So we still had to choose a mascot and one of our blonds wanted a lion, and she growled around until she got it. Then one evening while we were sitting around, we started drawing and worked out a seal with the motto, "God Above All." Later it was changed to "Christ Above All" to be more relevant to the times.

While I am talking about this P, Playing, I recall that one night we had planned a party and somebody went out and bought eight gallon jugs of cider. But one of the young ladies in town died, and so the party was cancelled, but the jugs were left sitting in the typing room. There they sat until finally we had a big explosion, and there was cider all over the ceiling, the walls, and the floors.

Then we had a drama club, and we had banquets. I'll never forget the morning when Dr. Rudd stood in chapel in the days when the junior-senior banquet location was a big secret and he prayed, "Lord, keep the students safe as they go to Knoxville."

Let us go to Praise. Dr. Guille hired me, but I didn't know what I was in for. He said, "Your salary is $200 a month." But he didn't tell me the salary would be paid with scrip, which we could use at the local stores. And a year later the salary went to $80 a month, if there was enough after the bills were paid. In spite of these seeming hardships, I doubt if Bryan ever had a group that felt more like the Lord wanted them there.

Dean Ryther signs Virgil Sorge's diploma 38 years late! Mr. Ryther was on leave during 1944 to serve in the U. S. Army, so he was absent when Virgil graduated.

And then there were the Physical blessings. The high school had moved out of their old building, so it became the first home for Bryan. In that old building we had drips all over the place. When it rained, out came the old buckets. On those stairs there would sometimes be as much as a fourth cup of water standing where footsteps had worn a groove. But I wouldn't take anything in the world for those experiences. Then we moved up to the present main building before it was finished; I wish I had time enough to tell you about that building. It wasn't always like it is now. The wind blew through those rooms in the fall before the windows were in place, and we shivered!

Then we come to the final P. The last one is the most important, because the seventh P in the pod is the Product. That is you. You are the products of Bryan. The Lord used Bryan the first year and over the past fifty-two years. You know what happens when you plant a pea! It sprouts and it grows and it makes what it had built into it. When it has the rain and the sun and is in the right soil, it produces. I have kept up with some of you folks well enough to know that you have been good Ps—good products—and I am proud of you and say, "God bless you."

1982 ALUMNA OF THE YEAR VIRGINIA SEGUINE '54

Here is a tribute to our 1982 Alumna of the year by that Bard of Bryan Biography, Herman (R.M. Cornelius '55) Shakespeare.

It was not too many a year ago,
In a kingdom far from the sea,
That a maiden was born whom you all know:
Alumna of this year she is to be.

Whether teaching at Tennessee School for the Deaf,
Or at ABI in the mountains' cleft,
Being part of the Bryan Library scene,
Or a member of the Campbell-Reese Evangelistic Team,

Whether with Gospel Messengers numerous times,
Student recruiting for the Bryan Lions,
Serving the Lord at a church named Grace,
Directing Bryan Admissions with her happy face,

Whether singing or playing the piano for God,
There was a continual smile and a warm, cheery nod.
When she was part of a group, there was always a blend.
In accompanying others she was ever a friend.

It was not too many a year ago,
In a kingdom filled with pine,
That a maiden we honor tonight did glow:
By the name of Virginia Seguire.

Virginia (Ginny) Seguire was selected Alumna of the year for 1982. During her student years at Bryan (1950-1954) she represented Bryan on Gospel Messengers. Her first year out of Bryan, Ginny was a teacher at Tennessee School for the Deaf.

The next several years she did graduate work in Library Science and served at Appalachian Bible Institute. She earned her Master's at Western Michigan University in 1965. Ginny returned to Bryan in 1964 as librarian and instructor in music. Then the Lord led His multi-talented servant to travel with the Campbell-Reese evangelistic team for two years before she returned to Bryan in 1978 as a recruiter traveling with Gospel Messengers. From 1980 to 1982 Ginny has been Bryan's Director of Admissions—winsome and smiling, as always.

PREPARATION FOR LIFE

by Lora Lee Spurlock

In her Alumni Chapel message, Lora Lee Spurlock '57 challenged students and alumni to be preparing all the time. Following are excerpts from her talk.

Everybody is preparing for something. You kids here at Bryan think you have come here to Bryan to prepare for something--maybe to be a school teacher, a Christian one, of course; maybe to be a lawyer, or scientist, or linguist; maybe just preparing to get away from home; but you all came here preparing for something.

Before you were born, your Mom prepared for you. She got the nursery all ready, and she was expecting you to come--she was preparing for you. And then after you were born, she prepared to help you start to walk or to cut your teeth. Then she started to prepare you to go to school. Then maybe you started preparing yourself--preparing yourself to read, to figure. Pretty soon you were in the sixth grade getting ready to go into junior high school. Then in eighth grade you were preparing to go into high school. Then some of you last year were preparing to come to college.

Jack Spurlock prepared here at Bryan to be a teacher. He prepared to be a missionary pilot out in Africa. He spent lots of years, lots of time, lots of money preparing. God took him!

Keith Green had been spending years preparing, getting ready to be that prophet. Then suddenly. . .!

Dan DeHaan prepared for years! Then . . . !

All this was earthly preparation. What are we preparing for? I want to talk to you today about three kinds of preparation. The first one is earthly preparation.

What did God want? Why did God make the earth? Why did He put people on it? Well, I am a Mom, and my kids know that Moms like to have their family all around them. They like to be with their kids and to do for their kids. So if I'm that kind of person, and I fix this great big dinner, and then I say, "Come on, kids, let's eat." What do I want them to do? I want them to come and eat!

That's all God wants to do. He wants to have a family around Him, and He wants to give them a really lot of good things. It says in Romans 8:28, "All things work together for good to them that love God, to those who are called according to His purpose."

But it doesn't stop there. I want to read the 29th verse. That is what makes the 28th verse make sense. "For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His dear Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren." The Lord's got a table; He's fixing a big meal; He's got it all ready. What does He want? He wants us to wash our face and hands and come to the table with a good appetite. He wants us to take what He's got to give us. But we're not ready!

Then, there is a heavenly preparation. God did it all. He got ready to give birth to many sons. It's scary what Jesus said on the cross while He was suspended between heaven and earth and the blackness and the pain and the rejection of the people He loved. He said, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" He was the joy of His Father, the Beloved; and God forsook Him.

Jesus was the heavenly preparation! God turned His back on Him because He can't stand to see sin, but He wanted us. He's got it all ready and He wants to share it. But we have to get rid of that sin, which separates us from Him. We are in training, that's what our preparation is--training for eternity to be conformed to the image of that first Son so there can be lots of sons.

I don't often ask questions, but I want to ask you this: When is the last time that you sensed the presence of God all by yourself? We can talk about it all we want to, but how are we going to experience it? What robs us of the presence of God?

Number one, divisions. Divisions, no matter what the reason, separate us from the presence of God, because He has asked us to be one like He and the Father are one. The only thing that separated God and Jesus was the world's sin. That's why God turned His back on Him, because there was sin, and it had to be dealt with. No matter how right we are, division is sin which separates us from the presence of God.

The second thing that separates us is pride. Lucifer knew about that, didn't he? thinking he could do something, or he could be something. Pride separates us from the presence of God.

The third thing that separates us is selfishness. All the sin in the world, even pride and division, are caused by selfishness.

I am going to ask you to make a mental note now and make some preparation to carry the presence of God with you personally out of this room. I want you today to remember that anytime some one of these things happens in your life to call yourself to attention. Check anger or bad feeling toward somebody, dirty stories, lies, lack of love, division--any of those things that come into your life.

So all day today, grab hold of your thoughts, wherever they come from and make them obey, and bring "every thought into captivity to Christ."

So there's an earthly preparation for being a school teacher, doctor, or whatever you wish; but if that is all you are preparing for, you're wasting your time. Remember, there's a heavenly preparation, and God did that for us because He has this big table and all these neat things prepared; and He doesn't want to enjoy them alone.

CLASS NOTES 40s

Edward '39 and Joyce (Hirschy) '40 deRosset anticipate a return to the States soon in order for Ed to have medical care and treatment following two light strokes which he experienced in the summer. He has suffered some paralysis on his left side and has had to discontinue his work at the Seminary. Joyce continues with her classes, her piano ministry, and her work among needy Christian women. They plan to reside in Evans City, Pennsylvania, with Joyce's mother, Mrs. Norman Hirschy.

In their seventh term in Taiwan, Clare and Grace (Theobald) x'46 McGill continue seeking to help national believers become established. They have a small group of Tayals worshipping in their home on Sunday evenings. They also minister in mountain churches as Clare teaches them and sells books and records, while Grace seeks to help in personal counselling to believers. Their son and his wife, Tim and Bonnie, continue their work as dorm parents at Morrison Christian Academy. Their son Terry expects to graduate there in 1983. Grace's father, who is also the father of Paul Theobald x'43, had an "Enoch-like" homegoing at age 98 just after he returned from an evening session of a Bible conference in his home town in Canada.

Ron '52 and Gladys (Jennewein) '50 Meznar planned to complete their six-month furlough in October. During July they spent ten days at the Baptist Bible College at Clarks Summit, Pennsylvania, on mission business. Ron spoke to the candidate class about the Sao Paulo field and led a study on witnessing in a Roman Catholic culture. Their children expect to be scattered next year--Marc '82 to teach at P.A.C.A. in Brazil and be with his parents; Jenny '79, who recently concluded studies in Bolivia on her master's program, plans for a year of Bible study at Capernway Missionary Fellowship beginning in March 1983; and Jill '75 and her husband, Lee Thompson, are on a teaching assignment in North Yemen.

Ginny (Nye) Visser '60 held the attention of banquet guests as she told how she wrote the Bryan Alma Mater.

Wayne Cropp recognizes new honorary alumni-- Mary and Glenn Liebig and Ursula Luetgens.

Armond (Bud) '54 and Lolly (Gearhart) '54 Fritz have just completed twenty-five years of missionary service. They began their work under TEAM in Rhodesia. On being unable to return there, in 1977 they took up a teaching ministry in Trinidad. In 1981, they returned to the States to be an arm for TEAM in serving Bible schools in foreign lands through LIT International with headquarters in Vinton, Virginia. During October and November, Bud was scheduled to visit United Arab Emirates, India, Sri Lanka, Indonesia, Philippines, and Hawaii, to assist missionaries there with their training programs.

Dale '54 and Martha (Sheffield) '55 Payne returned to Brazil in September after a three-and-a-half month furlough. Despite an automobile accident while in Denver, the time was well spent in seeing friends and family. They traveled from Miami to Colorado to New Jersey. The Paynes are working in Campinas with ABWE, specifically with the local church and teaching in the Bible Institute.

George '55 and Norma Haberer rejoice in the recent submission to Christ of a "headman" in Papua New Guinea. One of his two wives and two of his fifteen sons had previously come to know the Lord. Several weeks later the eldest of the sons and his wife gave their hearts to Christ. Two new ministries were initiated last spring--a Bible school for laymen held on Monday evenings for two hours and a Saturday afternoon program for the Baptist Youth Fellowship in the church-youth building.

Mickey Park '55 was on Radio Bible Class and Day of Discovery on October 31. He joined Paul Van Gorder, Al Sanders and David Gotaas in discussing "The Church, a Body, How Does it Function?"

Alice White '55 has returned to Chavuma, Zambia, after a six-month furlough. Early in September she attended a Bible conference marking the opening of a new 1,000-seat Gospel Hall in Laloma Mission, about 200 miles from Chavuma. To assist in the ministry a doctor has arrived from Scotland and a new hospital is being built. Alice hopes to be more involved in women's work and in village ministry when the new nurse, who is now learning the language, can take over some of her duties.

Kenneth x'56 and Faye (Simpson) x'57 Bean celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on September 19, 1982.

Charles (Spud) '56 Willoughby recently spent several days in the hospital in May to get relief from a ruptured back disk after a fall while he was playing volleyball. He was glad for opportunities to share Christ in this "by-path" on life's way. With the help of his wife, Charlotte, all his classes were recorded last year, so he can use these tapes for preparation in the event that his failing sight becomes worse. Spud and Char work together at Citadel Bible College; their son Dave and his wife also have teaching ministries at Citadel. They have three children enrolled at Citadel this fall--Dan, a senior; Priscilla, a sophomore; and Steve, a freshman. Dan and Pris traveled with Citadel's choir in May. Tim x'80 and his wife, Joellen, planned to begin Spanish language training in Edinburg, Texas, in August.

The second annual Arts and Crafts Fair, held during Homecoming weekend, raised $340 for the MK scholarship fund. Other gifts received in the fund during Homecoming totaled $260. This brought the total for this school year to $4,020, just $980 short of the Alumni Association's goal of $5,000 for the year.

As the Lord leads, you are invited to help missions, help students, and help Bryan College by sending your gift to help Missionary kids this year. Just mark your envelope to MK scholarship fund, in care of the Alumni Office.

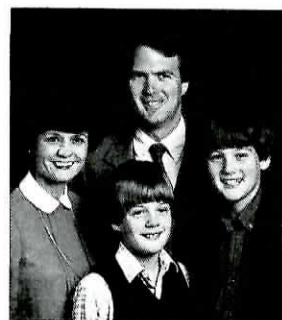

WINONA LAKE CHAPTER

Kneeling: Rod '80 and Cathy Ryle, Connie (Reehoff) x'82 and Tom '80 Branson, Charlotte (Pryor) '81 Traub. Standing: Dave Gross '81, Steve and Wilma (Mason) '78 Bailey with Timothy; Vickey (Hudson) '77 and Tom '77 Varney with Matthew, and George Traub '80.

Frank '57 and Thelma Russell begin their twentieth year with Oak Hills Fellowship Bible Institute this fall. When they moved to Minnesota nineteen years ago, they had two small daughters, and now they have three grandchildren. Frank continues his responsibility as dean of education and reports appreciation for the continuing high Christian standards and strong Bible-based training program provided to young people at Oak Hills.

Gary and Alice (Tobelman) '59 Fredricks with their two boys, Scott and Mark, left the U.S. on September 15, expecting to arrive in Nairobi, Kenya on September 17. They will continue their Campus Crusade for Christ ministry among college youth, seeking to train nationals to take leadership in ministry.

Dean '58 and Edith Franklin, who are with Worldteam of Coral Gables, Florida, were at the Euro-team Conference in Grenoble, France. Their responsibilities there were teaching and counselling.

Jerry '59 and Amy (Wilson) x'59 Smith who are with WEFministries, Inc. are praising the Lord for raising their support as they have traveled and ministered during the summer months.

Lee '60 and Irene Temples are sharing in the joy of New Tribes Mission workers who have completed the translation of the New Testament in two languages for Indian tribes in Venezuela--the Guaica and the Piara language. They have had a part in mimeographing portions of these two translations to give the Indian brethren some portion of the Word to read while they are waiting for the printed New Testaments. They have appreciated summer teams who helped rebuild a schoolhouse and have assisted in other repair jobs at various mission stations.

Naomi Glock x'61 is continuing to work in Suriname with her partner, Catherine Rountree, and a native Saramaccan in the Bible translation in the Saramaccan language. They have recently completed Galatians, Colossians, James, Hebrews and I Peter. Naomi had the misfortune to have her foot injured when a barrel of gasoline fell on it, but her foot has improved.

Don '66 and Beatrice (Pendleton) '66 Crane plan for a summer furlough from their missionary work in France under Greater Europe Mission and hope to attend the 1983 Bryan Bible Conference July 25-30.

David Fisher '67 had an article entitled "Christian Labor" published in the September issue of Evangelical Beacon.

Robert x'67 and Dorothy (Sides) '65 Kaatz continue their ministry in Germany, living in Bickenbach with their three daughters. During June Bob spent a week in southeast Austria teaching at an extension school with 14 workers from Operation Mobilization. He is continuing to teach at the German Bible Institute which now has about 85 students. Dottie is involved in the women's work at their church as well as the new International Christian Women's Club in Bensheim.

Ron and Della (Black) x'67 Proctor live in Irving, Texas, where Don is minister of adults at the McArthur Blvd. Baptist Church. Della assists in the women's ministry and in Bible studies. The Proctors have two children--Deborah, 7, and Joshua, 5.

Ray x'68 and Linda (Guess) x'67 Ferguson visited Bryan campus on their way to pick up their son in Richmond, Virginia, where he is visiting his Ferguson grandparents. Ray is area supervisor for McDonalds (hamburgers) and Linda, a graduate of Florida Southern, teaches second grade in their home area of Lakeland, Florida.

Allen Mawhinney '68 received the doctor of philosophy degree at Baylor University, Waco, Texas, on August 14. He has been on the faculty of Westminster Seminary, West, and residing in San Marcos, California, with his wife, Carole (Otteson) x'69 and their children.

alumni chapters chartered

What might someday be called the Upper Indiana Chapter of the Bryan Alumni Association met at the home of Tom and Connie (Reehoff) Branson on August 30. Those present at the meeting in Winona Lake are pictured below. The group showed great enthusiasm for Bryan and for initiating a Bryan Alumni chapter in their area.

On the same trip other alumni contacts were made in Michigan where Bryan banquets were held in Detroit and Grand Rapids on November 1 and 2. Alumni in those areas took voluntary leadership in planning and organizing the events. It is expected that local Bryan alumni chapters will be re-organized in Michigan in the near future.

Alumni get-togethers are to be held in Florida in the Orlando and Tampa areas early in December. Present at those meetings will be Dr. Robert Spoede and his wife, Nancy, and Steve Snyder and his wife, Barbara. These two events will be held immediately following Lions basketball games in Orlando December 2nd and Tampa December 4th. Alumni and prospective students in these areas are receiving information about those events.

Anyone interested in starting an alumni chapter in their area should write to Steve Snyder, Director of Alumni Affairs, Bryan College, Dayton, TN 37321.

MK scholarship report

Over the past four years Bryan alumni have contributed $17,545 to the alumni-sponsored Missionary Kids Scholarship Fund. During those four years, thirty-three MKs attending Bryan have received $16,750 toward their education. These students, whose names are listed here, have received, according to their needs, individual grants of from $125 to $500. Twelve of the thirty-three MKs are also children of Bryan alumni. Eleven of the thirty-three recipients are being aided this year by the fund. They are Judith Ashley, Dawn Bowman, Alice Eddy, Wendy Fehl, Cindy Fehl, Don Hilgeman, Tim Hostetler, Doreen Jueneman, Karen Lee, David Lieb and Jennifer Orth. Obviously, Bryan College benefits from having these fine young men and women here and by having financial aid to offer them because of the thoughtful gifts of alumni donors.

BIRTHS

To James '69 and Wynn Ann (Garrett) '70 Bauman a son, Andrew James, on June 5 in Clearwater, Florida.

To Judith (Jenkins) '71 and Eddie Bingham a son, Alan Christopher, on June 20 in Ringgold, Georgia.

To John '72 and Kathi (Barnes) x'77 Wyllie a daughter, Gwyneth Anne, on August 25. She joins sisters Kathleen and Sylwinn in Albuquerque.

To Larry and Anna (McCarrell) x'76 Varnell a son, Daniel Wallace, on September 24 in Woodstock, Georgia.

To Jon '74 and Marilyn (Hawkins) '75 Eisenback of Garner, North Carolina, their second son, Justin David, on September 21. His brother Brian, will be three in November.

To Gary and Betty (Eure) Johnson '74 their second son, Timothy Mark, on July 23. Timothy's older brother, Mark, was 2 in August.
